

Meeting Incentive Conferences and Events (MICE)

South Africa

It is probably one of the world's premier travel destinations and one would be amazed by this vibrant country. It is the most modern of the African countries and offers a unique mix of culture, wildlife, and beautiful landscape. In addition to this, South Africa also boasts of some of the best beaches in the world, world-famous vineyards and a great climate.

This land of Nelson Mandela has witnessed its miraculous transformation from a bitterly divided racial mess into what Archbishop Desmond Tutu called a "Rainbow Nation" and now welcomes more than nine million tourists a year.
